OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE POST IN INDIA,
January 1st 1861.

The following Conditions are to be observed in sending Book-Packets by Post:—

1st.—The Postage must be pre-paid in full, by means of Postage Stamps affixed outside the Packet on its cover.

2nd.—Every Packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides, so as to admit of the enclosures being removed for examination.

3rd.—The Packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters whether sealed or open) and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books; and in short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto.

4th.—The Packet must not contain any letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor must there be any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed in any such Packet or on its cover. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.

5th.—No Book-Packet can be received if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth.

6th.—Any Packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written or printed in it or upon its cover will be charged with Letter Postage.

7th.—If a Packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorized enclosure, the letter or enclosure will be taken out and forwarded to the address on the Packet, charged with full Postage as an unpaid letter.

together with, an additional Book-rate; that is, with the Postage chargeable on a Book weighing not more than half a lb the remainder of the Packet, if duly pre-paid with Stamps, will then be forwarded to its address.

8th.—If a Packet be not sufficiently pre-paid with Stamps but nevertheless bear Stamps equal to a single Book-rate, it will be forwarded charged with the deficient Book-Postage together with an additional Book-rate; but any Packet which shall not bear Postage Stamps equal to a single Book-rate will be detained and charged with the Letter Postage.

9th.—No Book-Packet weighing more than three lbs can be sent to or from the East Indies or to New South Wales.

10th.—The Colonial Book-Post extends to those Colonies only which are so marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

11th.—In no case can a Book-Packet be sent to the Colonies (except at the letter rate of Postage,) through a Foreign Country.

SPECIAL. Notice is directed to the subjoined Clauses of Rules, the want of attention to which has occasioned the Post Office much inconvenience.

2nd.—A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

3rd.—Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon upon every letter without exception, which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta and addressed to Hooghly is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due, had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

4th.—The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters, not only imposes much labor upon them, but in large Offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood, that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

The Railway Trains leave Howrah, at 9-20 A. M. daily (Sundays excepted.) Letters and Papers are sent to Bally, Coomnghur, Barrackpore, Serampore, Chandernagore, Hooghly, Burdwan, Bood Bood, Pandonah, Panaghur, Soorod, Raneeungee, Banecorah, Beerbhoom, Bousce and Nyadoonka. By the 5-40 P. M. Train, Mails for Bally, Coomnghur, Barrackpore, Serampore, Chandernagore, Hooghly and Pandonah are again made up and despatched. By the Express Mail Train which leaves Howrah at 8-45 P. M. the above Packets are also made up and forwarded, together with Mails for the North-Western Provinces and Oya, Ghazeepee, and Bombay Lines.

Noon Despatch for Serampore and Barrackpore are also made up and forwarded by Runners, and at 1 P. M. a Mail for Dum-Dum is made up and forwarded in a similar manner.

LETTERS, &c., posted at the Thannahs, Pillar Boxes, and the several Receiving Houses up to 1 P. M. will reach the General Post Office in time for Train Despatch at 4 P. M.

The Receiving Houses are opened daily from 9½ A. M. to 4 P. M.

Letters posted at the Receiving Houses and Pillar Boxes for delivery at Calcutta before 9 A. M. will be sent out by the second delivery, those posted before 1 P. M. will be sent out by the third delivery and after that hour the delivery will take place the following morning.

There is only one delivery of letters at the General Post Office on Sundays, and Banghy Parcels are neither received nor despatched on that day.

LETTERS and Newspapers despatched to and from the United Kingdom by private Vessels are liable to the following rates of Postage which must be pre-paid by Stamps:—

	Rs.	As.	Pie.
Letters not exceeding ½ oz. in weight	...	0	4
Ditto exceeding ½ oz. but not exceeding 1 oz.	...	0	8
And so on adding 8 annas for each oz. or fraction thereof which includes Inland Postage.

Newspapers not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, 1d. or 9 pie must be pre-paid in cash, and no Inland Postage is required upon such papers.

Parcels conveyed by the above opportunity for the United Kingdom are liable to Letter rates of Postage.

Notice.

THE following Extract of an Order of the Government of India, No. 884, of the 18th July 1855.

"No Public Officer is authorized to send Covers on the Public Service by Post, without payment of Postage, unless he is at the time on active duty and in charge of the Office by virtue of which the privilege is enjoyed. All letters superscribed as 'on the Public Service only' must, even though the Postage thereon be not paid, be received and opened by the Officer to whom they are addressed, but if any such, or partially paid letter so superscribed, and addressed to any Officer except a Secretary to Government be found when opened, to relate to the private affairs of the Sender, the Postage will be debited to him and he will be further liable to be dealt with under Section XLVII. Act No XVII. of 1851.

His Honor in Council further directs that unpaid or insufficiently paid letters addressed to any such Officer or Department and not superscribed 'on the Public Service only' be refused, or if opened that it be at the risk and cost of the opener."

IRON Pillar Letter Boxes have been placed in the following localities:—

Rada Bazar, Bonded Ware-house; Wellington Square, Mangoe Lane, Park Street, Gowkhamnah, Scott Thomson's, General Treasury, Prinsep's Ghaut, Fort near Main Guard, Watgunge, Salt Golah Ghaut, Matia Poraze, Ballygunge, General Hospital, Theatre Road, Strand Flour Mills, Prossono Coomar's Ghaut, College Square and Chitpore Road, and are opened three times a day at 9 A. M., 1 and 4 P. M.

Letters, &c., intended for Calcutta posted in the above Box up to 9 A. M. and 1 P. M. will be brought in time for the second and third deliveries respectively, and those dropped into the Box after 1 P. M. and up to 4 P. M. will be distributed the next morning at the first delivery.

Letters, &c., intended for the Train Mail, found in the Pillar Box at 9 A. M. and 1 P. M. will arrive in time for 4 P. M. Despatch, and those posted after the last mentioned hour and up to 5 P. M. will be forwarded by the Express Mail Train at 8-15 P. M.

Letters, &c., for Eastern and Southern routes posted up to 5 P. M. will be forwarded to their destination at 8 P. M.

On Sundays, the Letter Box will be cleared twice, viz., 12 noon and 4 P. M., and letters, &c., posted after the latter hour will be brought to the Calcutta Post Office the following morning.

LETTERS arriving at the Presidency Towns, by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery according to the address alone, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address; such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the forward and unclaimed Departments of the Office.

Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter, without exception, which may be re-directed in the Post Office.

Letters, &c., received by the Steamer will be delivered at the Window of the Post Office only to parties who have registered their names. Applications to the Post Office on the day of the Steamer's arrival to intercept and re-direct letters, &c., cannot be attended to, as they are found not only to impose much labour but seriously retard the delivery and despatch of the Mails.

ALL Banghy Parcels being registered before despatch it is needless to have a Banghy Parcel specially registered by payment of the Fee of 4 annas as no additional precaution can be taken of a specially Registered Parcel which is not taken in the case of every ordinary Banghy Parcel.

UNDER the orders of Government, no fourth delivery of letters by the Post Office is allowed. Mails which are received by Steamers from Suez at so late an hour in the day as not to admit of the letters being taken out for delivery by 6 P. M. are detained till the following morning, but parties who have registered their names under the usual fee, are entitled to receive their letters, and Marseilles Newspapers so soon as the Mails are sorted, and which is generally about 2½ hours after receipt of the Mail at the Post Office.

A NUMBER of Letters and Newspapers for parties residing at Calcutta are from their being directed to the Suburbs* of the Town, mistaken for places in the Mofussil, and are enclosed in the Boxes superscribed "Inland" by the London Post Office and are not in consequence discovered by the Calcutta Post Office, till after the local delivery has taken place. This will account for some of the letters, &c., reaching the Addressees at a late hour.

FROM CAPTAIN J. O. B. FORREST,
3rd Bombay European Regiment,
Comdg. Field Force Det. at Lallupore,

TO LIEUT.-COLONEL J. LIDDELL,

Commanding Field Force at Lallupore.

Dated Camp Poorah, 1st January 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for your information, a report of the proceedings of the Force under my Command (strength as per margin), since my arrival at Talbehut on the 27th ultimo.

The information not having been good enough to warrant my moving immediately, I halted a day there, to enable the spies I sent out to return, which they did on the evening of the 28th, and reported that the enemy under Takoor Telook Sing, and Dewan Mardun Sing had barricaded the road about a mile to the west of Sonorie, and had collected their followers to the number of 300 men, (amongst whom were mutineer Sepoys with percussion arms), with the intention of disputing the passage.

I marched at day-break in the following order: Advanced Guard, 7 Files of the 3rd Europeans, 12½ Files 24th Regiment Native Infantry, 7 Files of the Military Police, (which Captain Sneyd had kindly placed at my disposal), under Lieutenant Leslie, main body. The remainder 3rd Europeans, ditto 24th Regiment Native Infantry and about 60 Police Cavalry and Infantry. Rear Guard, the Troop 3rd Light Cavalry, under Lieutenant Coombe.

We proceeded for about three miles without opposition through a very dense jungle, not on coming to a sudden turn of the road, commanded by high rocks on either side in the very thickest of the wood, we were received with a heavy fire from muskets and matchlocks, with, I regret to say, fatal results to one of the Europeans. The enemy were driven in gallant style from the rocks by the Advanced Guard, and retreated slowly, disputing every inch of ground for about a mile, where the jungle not being so dense, I ordered a more rapid advance, which resulted in the total dispersion of the Rebels, who fled in the direction of some hills to the North-East of Sonorie. They left in the jungle between 20 and 30 killed, and their wounded must be computed at still greater numbers. From the difficult nature of the Country, I deemed it advisable to send back a reinforcement of 50 Native Infantry to Lieutenant Coombe. The results fully bore me out in this order, as the Rear Guard was attacked by some stragglers and 2 Privates 24th Regiment Native Infantry wounded.

I proceeded to occupy the village of Sonorie, which was done without resistance. It was quite deserted: in it were the two fortified houses of the before-mentioned Takoor, which I ordered to be destroyed, and which order was carried out as well as the means at my disposal would admit of.

30th December 1858.—About 10 A. M., it was reported to me that several of the enemy were lurking among the hills and jungle to our left rear. I with the following party, 25 Rank and File 3rd Europeans and the Police proceeded by a detour to the North-West, while Lieutenant Leslie, with the 24th Regiment Native Infantry, was ordered to make a similar detour in a South-West direction, and meet the party under my Command to the West of a large hill behind which the enemy were supposed to be. We scoured the jungle for about three hours, but without being able to bring them to action, although they were seen in the distance, and one wounded by a man of the 24th Regiment Native Infantry. Their knowledge of the country, and the thickness of the jungle enabled them to escape.

Amongst these hills, the Police succeeded in retaking a quantity of cotton and thread which had been looted by the enemy some days previously, and which I handed over to the Thesaldar of Chunderie.

31st December 1858.—Early in the morning before day-light, information was given me that the Rana with three hundred men was at Poorah in a small gharrie, and was looting the country. I immediately ordered the Camp to be struck, and pushed on the 3rd Cavalry in hopes of surrounding him in his stronghold, while I followed with the rest of the column. His look outs however, posted on a high hill discovered the approach of the Cavalry, and he at once retreated to another small gharrie in some strong jungle, about a coss beyond and to the Eastward of Poorah.

On learning this I left the Artillery and Baggage with a Guard of the 24th, and proceeded in two parties (one commanded by myself: the other by Lieutenant Leslie) by different routes, to try and surround him.

The party under my command first came upon him on which he quickly vacated his position, running straight on to Lieutenant Leslie's party. The enemy had now only one line of escape open, and of which they were enabled to take advantage by our numbers not having quite sufficient to complete the cordon. We pursued them till the jungle became impracticable for troops to work in, when I returned to Poorah and pitched Camp.

The Officers and men have in every instance willingly and effectually carried out my orders, and to them I tender my best thanks, especially Lieutenants Coombe and Leslie, who so ably performed the duties allotted to them.

To Captain Sneyd also I am indebted for his kindness in placing the Police at my disposal.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to inform you that agreeably to your instructions, I marched from Kolara and from thence to Ranode. On reaching this place, the Kunashdan informed me that Man Sing had crossed the Betwa to join Tantia Topce, and was last heard of at Jakhdown Ghat, but that he had left Bhyron Sing and Niranjun Sing, with about three hundred followers, matchlockmen, in the Fort of Akajhree.

On the morning of the 8th I advanced to the Fort of Akajhree with the Force, as per margin, and found the enemy evacuating it.

I had communicated on the day previous with Colonel Sculman, Her Majesty's 14th Dragoons, who was encamped at Mysore, and in Command of the Flying Column.

The Fort which is built of stone is a strong one, containing four towers inside the second wall, which command the entire enclosure.

I here learnt that the enemy had gone towards Gurahie, a village situated on the borders of the Jhausie territory, to which place I advanced on the 9th with the Cavalry and (35) thirty-five matchlockmen of Esanghur.

The village is situated on the slope of a small hill which was occupied by the enemy. I sent "Meade's Horse" to cut off their retreat and advanced the matchlockmen in skirmishing order, supporting them with my Cavalry; but the fire soon became too hot for the skirmishers, who after a few of their number had been disabled, could not be persuaded to close with the enemy.

I then gradually withdrew the Cavalry in hopes that the Rebels would follow and give me an opportunity of charging them on favorable ground; just at this critical moment the shouts of "Meade's Horse," charging from the opposite side of the hill, showed me their position, and leading up my own party we cleared the hill, driving the enemy to take shelter in the adjacent jungles. Twenty-five bodies were counted on the field after the charge, in which Hunder Sing, Duffadar of "Meade's Horse," particularly distinguished himself. We rescued a Zemindar who was a captive in the hands of the Rebels, together with a couple of Bankers. The enemy mustered two hundred matchlocks according to the report of the captives. After burning their village, we carried off a number of their cattle, together with one prisoner taken in the charge, with arms in his possession. Dhakunjee, the Zemindar of Gurahie, was also in arms against us.

Where all did well it would be injustice to land one more than another. I am extremely indebted to the Zemindars of the different Troops. To Ram Sing, Zemindar of the Bolundshere Horse, Sheikh Omar, of the 1st Bombay Lancers, and Narnin Sing, of Meade's Horse.

Letter dated Bhanpore, 11th November 1858, from Captain Browne, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, Commanding Detachment.

FROM LIEUTENANT-COLONEL J. BRASSEY,

TO CAPTAIN MORRIS,

Major of Brigade,

Bustee.

Camp Bhanpore, 11th November 1858.

Sir,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of Brigadier Roweroff, that I marched from Bustee towards Bhanpore, with the Regiment of Percepore, this morning as directed. Just before day-break I was informed that the Rebels had strong pickets of about 100 men each in the nullah and jungle close by on my then left; that they had been sounding their bugles, and were very busy running about in the border of the jungle. Continuing my advance, I arrived near Bhanpore at sun-rise; the Rebels (as they proved to be) began firing musketry, keeping under cover of the jungle, and immediately fired a gun. Captain Browne opening fire on my right front, my skirmishers having reached within musket shot of the village, and the Rebels retiring towards my left and rear; I keeping my right close to the village, attempted to cut off the enemy's retreat by dashing through the jungle on the left of the road. This proved but an attempt, for I cleared the jungle only just in time to see them retreating towards the Khosnee Nuddee, still more to my than left.

The enemy retreating under cover of the jungle, and out of reach of musketry, I am inclined to think they had but few or no Casualties, and I am happy to say but one man (of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry) wounded on our side.

The position of the enemy evidently shows they intended to have got round upon the rear of (either) our party, had we not advanced from two different directions at one and the same time, and their preparations for retreat shows they had intimation of our advance. They are now said to have crossed the Khosnee River about a coss in our present front.

FROM CAPTAIN M. BROWNE,

13th Light Infantry.

TO LIEUT.-COLONEL BRASIER, C. B.,

Commanding Field Detachment.

Bhanpore, 11th November 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of the Brigadier Commanding at Buxee,

5 Officers and 21 men Ben. Vist. Coy., under Lieut. Ellis.

2 Officers, 24 men and 2 guns Naval Brigade, under Lieut. Ingles, R. N.

3 Officers and 160 men H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, under Capt. Boyd.

that in compliance with an order received last night from the Deputy Quarter-Master General, the detachments under my Command, strength as per margin, marched from Rudowlee, en route to Bhanpore, at 2 o'clock this morning. On arriving within 2 miles of the enemy's position, I halted till day-light, and then advanced about half a mile from Bhanpore, which we reached about sun-rise, a deep nullah crossed the road, where some difficulty occurred in passing the guns over.

No sooner had the whole Force passed this nullah, than the enemy opened fire on us with round shot, one of which, I regret to say, severely wounded a man of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry. As they had got our range with perfect accuracy, I considered that to remain where we were would subject us to many more Casualties, and determined on attacking them at once. We advanced with the Guns in the centre, supported on both flanks by the 13th Light Infantry in skirmishing order, with supports, the Troop of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry in the rear. The enemy now showed in great numbers in our front and both flanks. I should rate their numbers at about 800 men, Cavalry, Infantry, and 2 Guns, though the Native spies say there were many more. On our advancing they retired, though in a most orderly manner, from which I am disposed to think there were many Sepoys among them and Irregular Cavalry.

We followed them rapidly, the guns of the Naval Brigade throwing shell into them with admirable celerity and precision, the 13th keeping up a rapid rifle firing. The Rebels occasionally halted and fronted, firing volleys of musketry at us, but without effect. We chased them for about 2 miles, when they were driven into a thick jungle, where pursuit would have been useless, and as we had left the Town of Bhanpore in our rear, and not knowing whether there was any Rebel Force holding it or not, I determined on returning there to ascertain. At this moment, as you

Sir are aware, we were joined by the Sikhs under your command.

I should feel obliged by your bringing to the notice of the Brigadier the excellent conduct of all the Troops and Sailors engaged, moving as steadily as on an ordinary field day. To Captain Boyd, Commanding the Detachment 13th Light Infantry, I beg to express my best thanks, for the able manner in which he handled the skirmishers, and the spirited way in which he led the advance. Lieutenant Ingles and the Naval Brigade worked their guns with a rapidity and coolness which was beautiful to witness.

I much regret that Lieutenant Ellis and his fine Troop of Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry had no opportunity of charging, as the country consisted of thick jungle and large tops of trees, with very little open space between them. Had they been able to do so, I am convinced he could have captured their guns.

Lieutenant Wroughton, 13th Light Infantry, has acted as Staff Officer to these Detachments since we left Buxee, and has been most useful as an Interpreter and indefatigable in obtaining information.

The Native spies state that the enemy's loss was 10 or 12 killed, and about 20 wounded, but I am unable to speak with any accuracy on this subject from the thick state of the jungle and tops.

eastward of Goruckpore. After a march of about of Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding the District, that I left this Station at 11 o'clock, P. M., on the 19th instant, with a party of the strength named in the margin, and under the guidance of Mr. Bird, Magistrate and Collector of Goruckpore, for the purpose of dispersing a body of Rebels under the Command of Budhoo Singh, whose numbers were variously estimated at from 500 to 800 strong, and who were reported to have taken up a strong position in a dense jungle about 16 miles to the 17 miles, we found ourselves in the vicinity of a house, formerly an Indigo Factory, and which, I had been led to suppose, was also in the occupation of the Rebels, but as this information proved incorrect, I proceeded to enter that portion of the jungle stated to be in their occupation, and after proceeding a short distance, came upon their position, which had evidently been abandoned with the utmost precipitancy, as I found the Camp fires burning, and the food of a large number of men in a state of preparation.

A few bullocks and ponies, about 70 hackeries, two of them laden with rice, a quantity of native powder and cartridges, and a number of entrenching tools, had all been abandoned in the haste of departure.

On examination, I found that a wide ditch and embankment had been traced out and partly executed on the side facing the open ground, and as from the density of the jungle, their position was almost impracticable from other points, there can be no doubt that had time been allowed to complete the defences, it would have proved a formidable one.

Finding that pursuit in such ground was useless, I withdrew the party, after burning the Camp and destroying the powder, and marched again the evening of the 20th instant to Goruckpore, according to instructions received from the Brigadier, leaving Mr. Bird with 150 Native Levies and 35 Europeans with half the Troop Madras Native Cavalry, both the latter parties under the Command of Lieutenant Alexander, Madras Native Cavalry, and the whole under Lieutenant Shaw, of the Native Levies, to level the works thrown up by the Rebels, after which it is the intention of Mr. Bird to return with the whole party to Goruckpore.

I beg to observe that in the twenty-six hours I was absent from the Station, the men, the greater number of them quite young Soldiers, marched considerably more than 40 miles, and that apparently without the least distress.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding the Brigade, that as directed by him, I marched from Amah yesterday, at 2 P. M., with Troops as per margin, towards Kothela, and from information gained on the road, I determined to proceed direct to where the Rebels were located near the Purgash ghat (Khoanec Nud-

2 Officers and 20 Men Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry.

1 Native Officer and 20 Men 8th Madras Cavalry.

3 Native Officers and 240 Men Regiment of Perozepore.

I determined to proceed direct to where the Rebels were located near the Purgash ghat (Khoanec Nuddec.) approaching which, the Rebels, some 600 or 700, perceiving our advance, hastily assembled, and firing musketry and jingals, made a partial advance. My skirmishers being then within musket shot of them, commenced firing, and the whole, with Cavalry on both flanks, in as good a line as the broken ground and jungle would admit of, charged the enemy, and we drove them before us into a dense jungle, a short distance beyond where they were first seen, but the jungle being too thick to pursue them with the least chance of further success, I retreated to the open fields, and encamped for the night.

I was much pleased with, and thankful to, the Officers and Men of the Cavalry, as well as my own Regiment (Regiment of Perozepore) for the steady way in which all advanced, with the enemy's shots flying over our heads, and I am happy to say, without a single Casualty on our side.

The enemy were surprized while cooking their meals, and although they managed to carry off all other their property, we found much of their food still on the fire, and the head and heel ropes of several horses cut and left on the roots of trees to which they had been fastened. The enemy are known to have had four men killed in their retreat.

I have, &c.,

information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that I moved up with the force noted in the margin, on the 4th instant, in progress to Hindown, to oppose the Rebels under the Maharatta Chief, the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topce, and the Shazadul Ferozesah, who from their position threatened both Dhurapore and Jeypore.

On my arrival at Hindown, intelligence came in which led me to advance to Doongay Malana, where I arrived on the 11th. Here I learnt the Rebels were moving Northwards between my position and Tonk. Their destination was evidently Jeypore. I immediately threw forward a strong advanced guard to Beepulivara, 18 miles distant, to intercept the stragglers of the Rebel Force, and followed myself with the main body during the night.

The Rebels had passed the village only a few hours before. I now took up the pursuit, and following close on their heels came up with them at Dewsa at 3 A. M. of the 14th instant.

Dewsa is a town situated on the Western slope of a rocky hill, and bounded to the West by fields with high banks. It was among these the Rebels had taken up their position. The approach to it was difficult. There were but two roads leading out of the town in this direction. Without a guide on whom I could rely, I threw my column into one of these, and proceeded some distance in the hope of finding an opening to lead me to the Rebels' camp. Failing in this, and the grey of the morning appearing, I determined to commence the attack with the Cavalry, leaving the Artillery with the European Infantry as an escort to follow. I counter-marched the Cavalry, and threaded the streets of the town at a sharp trot until I came to the second road, which debouched nearly to the position of the Rebels. I pushed up one of the banks on the right, and formed the Cavalry on the high ground, the Detachment Agra Mounted Police on the left, and Squadron of Alexander's Horse on the right, and then advancing at a charging pace across the intervening fields, came upon the Rebels preparing to march. They were taken by surprise. The Cavalry dashed at once amongst them. Being unable to escape from the enclosures, numbers were killed. They however soon recovered from the surprise, and commenced a sharp musketry fire upon us. The charge notwithstanding was continued through a second field, when all that remained were cut up; we then came into the plain when the pursuit was kept up.

Our attack was made about the centre of the Enemy's position. It separated their force into three parties; one went off to the right, another to the left, while a considerable body were driven to our front, and vigorously followed up by the Detachment of Alexander's Horse and Agra Mounted Police under their gallant young Commanders, Lieutenant H. Chapman, of the late 49th Regiment Native Infantry, and Lieutenant H. T. Oldfield, of the late 9th Regiment Native Infantry.

The Artillery with the Detachment 2nd European Regiment had come up. The force had already made a most harassing march. During the last 15 hours we had followed the enemy continuously a distance of 75 miles. Men and horses had been exhausted and harassed the whole time, and had no other rest than what short bivouacs afforded. The horses were injured. But Lieutenant R. S. Robinson, Commanding Artillery, brought up his guns to within some 1200 yards of the party of the Rebels, who had fled to the right, but being at such a long range, they effected their escape without suffering severely. Petoosah is said to have been with this body.

The party on the left, with which I learned Tantia Topce moved off, disappeared early in the action. Not a horse or man after the first half hour could be seen in that direction.

The pursuit was kept up for five miles. I then halted. Men and horses were worn out with the previous marching, but as the Rebels were dispersed to the right and left, I directed a Troop from each Cavalry Detachment to take an advanced position to our front, so as to prevent the scattered bodies of the Rebels from reuniting without making a long detour.

In this action I received valuable aid from the Contingent of Cavalry of the Bhopore State, strength as per margin. I enclose the report of Captain Nixon, the Officiating British Agent, and I have to recommend to the notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief the services of the Officers mentioned by Captain Nixon.

From Captain Nixon himself I have received important assistance. He himself led the Contingent into the field and directed it during the action. He was able and indefatigable in obtaining information of the movements of the Rebels, and it was by his placing a number of riding camels at my disposal that I was able to bring my Infantry up with the Rebels. I beg to recommend the services of this Officer to the favorable consideration of His Lordship.

It is my duty also to bring to the favorable notice of His Excellency the services of Lieutenants Oldfield and Chapman in leading the respective detachments against the greatly superior numbers of the Rebels. I have to offer my acknowledgments to Captain R. Stevenson, Commanding Detachment, 3rd European Regiment, and Lieutenant R. S. Robinson, Commanding Artillery; also to Captain A. L. McMullin, of the late 23rd Regiment Native Infantry, and the Detachment Staff Officer, and Lieutenant A. Mancy, 3rd European Regiment, my Orderly Officer, whose horse was shot under him. These Officers rendered me great assistance during the action.

It is my grateful duty to bring to the favorable notice of Government the hardy and cheerful spirit displayed by all branches of the force while making the long and heavy marches in pursuit of the enemy as well as the gallantry of the Cavalry during the action. The conduct of all deserves great commendation.

Lieutenant Oldfield reports favorably of the conduct of Lieutenant G. F. J. Graham, of the 4th European Regiment, doing duty with the Etawah Levy; and I have to recommend for the Order of British India and Order of Merit the following Officers and Sowars:—

Alexander's Horse.		} Especially brought to notice by Lieutenant Chapman.
Shahid Amoenooddeen, Ressaidar, severely wounded.
Meg Sing (Jat) Sowar.
Meg Sing (Sikh) Sowar.
Kurtab Sing, Sowar.

Ressaidar Shadie Ramana } Especially brought to notice
Jemadar Sobha Sing, } by Lieutenant Oldfield, also of Kunneya Sing, Sowar, Agra Mounted Police, on my personal escort, who was himself wounded and had his horse wounded.

The loss in killed of the Rebels may have been 800, and reports have come in stating that they are carrying off on carts numbers of their wounded: one person of rank was killed whose name has not been ascertained. The Rebels had no Guns, but the Force captured 3 Elephants and 11 Camels, all that they had; several horses and ponies and some 300 muskets and tulwars.

Their strength has been variously computed at from 4 to 8,000 men, but there were certainly not less than 3,000 fighting men. They estimate their loss at 6 or 700, and reports since received state that numbers are falling off and deserting.

I beg herewith to forward a statement of our loss in killed and wounded.

No. 13.

FROM BRIGADIER W. HILL,

Commanding Hyderabad Contingent,

TO THE MILITARY SECRETARY

to the Resident, Hyderabad.

Dated Head-Quarters, Hyderabad Contingent,

Camp Attolee, 19th January 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Resident that as I approached the Village of the Wakhud, where I was to encamp on the 15th instant, I received a hurriedly written note from Captain Ivie Campbell, Enam Commissioner, who was at the village of Reesoad, informing me that a large body of Arabs and Rohillas had just entered the place and were plundering it.

I continued my march, and proceeded at a sharp trot to Reesoad, about 7 miles distant, and met Captain Campbell, who informed me that he had been plundered of every thing he had, and narrowly escaped with his life, and that several of the inhabitants had been killed, and the insurgents had gone off about half an hour before my arrival with all the property they had plundered, laden upon camels, tatoes, and bullocks.

On ascertaining that they had taken the direction of the Jintoor Road, I directed Captain Clogstoun with his squadron of 2nd Cavalry to pursue in one direction, and Captain Nightingale, Commanding the 3rd Cavalry, to follow.

On my arrival at the Village of Chichumba, about 8 miles off, with the Troop of Her Majesty's 12th Lancers and 4 guns of the Troop of Horse Artillery, I found that Captain Clogstoun had arrived first, and had pressed the insurgents so hard with about 250 of his men who were all that were up with him at the time, that he was compelled to hazard many gallant men in a greatly unequal contest with nearly 200 of the Rebels, which he did in a most gallant manner, and so determined was the attack that the insurgents were forced to seek for shelter in the village, throwing their plunder in every direction. It was not however before some loss was inflicted on the 2nd Cavalry, when I am very sorry indeed to state Ressaidar Major Ismail Khan was killed while fighting very gallantly, and Captain Clogstoun was also himself wounded and his horse also.

When the Rebels had sought protection in the village, Captain Nightingale with the 3rd Cavalry approached, and the two Regiments immediately surrounded Chichumba until arrangements could be made for attacking it. Though the Artillery were only 6-pounder guns, they were placed in position to open upon the village, and it was apparent from the firing which ensued, that the place was well defended by small Arms. On arrival of the 3rd Infantry, I made arrangements for assaulting the village, for though it was only a weak wing, and only 110 men were available for duty, it was necessary to dislodge the insurgents without delay, who were in a small dilapidated Ghurree with an open front, so as to prevent their escaping at night.

As some scattered houses lay around which must be passed before entering the Ghurree, and Captain McKinnon was the only European Officer with the party, I determined to Command it myself, as I foresaw that the assault would prove unsuccessful if he was disabled and any check should prevent a rush into the Ghurree.

The party advanced with skirmishers, supported by the Horse Artillery 6-pounder on the flanks, and on entering the village a few men fell; on nearing the Ghurree the firing became heavier, when Captain McKinnon fell mortally wounded; immediately after my Brigade Major Captain Hosenon was dangerously wounded, and my own Orderly was shot dead by my side.

My utmost endeavors now completely failed in urging the men to follow me and by a dash gain possession of the Ghurree, and finding that many men crowded round their disabled Commander to carry him off, which left me quite unsupported, no alternative was left me but to bring the remaining men out again, which I did under a heavy fire.

My object was now directed to prevent the Rebels from escaping during the night, as I was informed by a prisoner that the party consisted of 200 Bohillas, 70 Arabs and 70 Bhickanows under the Command of Haji Ali, an Arab Chief.

I visited the Cavalry pickets for this purpose, and gave directions that just before sun-set the Cavalry line of posts should be withdrawn, as if with the intention of joining the Camp at some distance off to deceive the Garrison, but that as soon as it became dark, they were to take up their old position and to be vigilant during the night.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock that night with a bright moon shining, the Rebels commenced their march across the plain in a compact body, and first brought the pickets of the 2nd Cavalry into action, which was subsequently joined by the 3rd Cavalry, and the Rebels when in full retreat kept up a continuous heavy firing upon the Cavalry, which caused us much loss; the Rebels, however, had upwards of 100 of their number cut up and speared.

As it was entirely an affair of pickets, I beg to forward a separate Report from Captains Clogstoun and Nightingale, minutely detailing the part each Regiment took on this very gallant occasion. So severe an example was dealt out to the Rebels, that wounded men have been brought into my Camp from a distance of several miles off, who informed me that they fled in the utmost confusion and panic.

I feel that I cannot describe too highly the gallantry of Captains Clogstoun and Nightingale on the night in question, as well as those who were engaged with them, who though so very unequally pitted against 3 or 400 men moving in a mass across strong and rough ground and keeping up a very heavy fire all the time, nevertheless these Officers undauntedly to break and scatter them, but were prevented doing so, by their approaching ravines, when Cavalry could no longer follow them.

I should however fail in my duty were I not to notice, in a more prominent manner, the good fortune which led to Captain Clogstoun's conspicuous gallantry on being the first to reach Chichumba and successfully to check the further retreat of the Rebels, and by his rapid pursuit compelled them to enter Chichumba and abandon their plunder on the morning of our arrival.

The personal encounter which Captain Clogstoun had with the Rebels, which led to this fortunate result was obtained however at the loss of 7 out of 8 men who charged with him. Captain Clogstoun was himself wounded by a musket ball, and was nearly knocked off from his horse by a blow from a musket, while at the same time his horse was wounded under him.

This individual act of personal bravery is beyond praise.

I cannot speak too highly of the manner in which both Officers and men of the Force performed most arduous and fatiguing duties, who, having marched a distance of 30 miles, were actually employed during the remainder of the day and the whole night without intermission, with the exception of a short interval when relieved for procuring food.

Dr. Mackenzie, the Senior Staff Surgeon, and the Medical Officer under him were most active in the discharge of their duties, and they were unremitting in their attention to the wounded.

Captain Hosenon, my Brigade Major, was most active during the whole of the day to the time he was dangerously wounded at the assault upon Chichumba, and while he was carrying my orders. His horse also was shot in two places.

In bringing forward some of those who are named in the report by Captains Clogstoun and Nightingale for rewards for conspicuous bravery, I would recommend in the 2nd Cavalry Ressaidar Meer Mahomed Sha for 3rd Class "Order of Merit," Jemadar Sadut Khan, who charged with Captain Clogstoun in the morning, for the rank of Ressaidar.

Bargheer Mahomed Noor Khan, who was wounded in the morning, and was again very badly wounded in the action that night, and his horse shot under him, for the rank of Duffadar and 3rd Class "Order of Merit," Zulikar Khan, who was very severely wounded after killing two of the Enemy, for the rank of Duffadar.

Troopers Meer Hossain Ali and Sheik Chand, who were both wounded in the charge with Captain Clogstoun in the morning when 7 out of 8 men killed and wounded; each, for the 3rd Class Order of Merit."

Trooper Ebuom Ali Khan, who accompanied Captain Hosenon in the assault upon Chichumba and brought him out of action when wounded under a heavy fire, for the 3rd Class "Order of Merit." Also Sheik Hyder, who was with Captain Clogstoun in the morning's charge.

In the 3rd Cavalry, Hyderabad Contingent, I would recommend this young and brave soldier Waghiru Waseel Khan, for the rank of Jemadar.

I would recommend that the rewards for which this distinguished Officer, Jemadar Villayet Ali Beg, had already been recommended for, should be conferred upon him, viz., the rank of Ressaidar and the 3rd Class "Order of Merit."

I would most strongly notice the very gallant conduct of the senior Ressaidar Major Shah Mirza Beg Bahadoor, who, while in the act of killing one man, had his right arm very nearly severed off by another Itchilla, for the rank of "Sirdar Bahadoor," this being the sixth time this gallant old Officer has been wounded.

Duffadar Ayed Goolam Ghouse for the 3rd Class Order of Merit.

As Trooper Mahomed Khan, Alla Dawd Khan, Myhoob Khan and Ghoulam Dustagheer, all of the 6th Troop, have already been recommended for the "Order of Merit" for their services in Central India for the 3rd Class of the "Order of Merit," I would recommend that that distinction should be now conferred upon them.

Silladar Nuttay Khan, of the First Troop, already recommended for the 3rd Class of the "Order of Merit," I recommend that Order should be bestowed upon him now.

Trooper Ali Sher Khan, 2nd Troop, for the 3rd Class "Order of Merit."

Trooper Fokroodeen, 6th Troop, dangerously wounded, for the 3rd Class "Order of Merit."

Accompanying is a General Roll of Casualties of the Force.

TO CAPTAIN H. HOBSEASON,

Brigade Major, Hyderabad Contingent.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of Brigadier Hill, Commanding the Hyderabad Contingent and Berar Field Force, that on approaching the village of Russoud on the 15th instant, I agreeably to instructions received, took up a position on the right. A Native there told me that the Enemy had marched on the road immediately in my rear, and feeling convinced that the same information would reach the Brigadier in Russoud from whence the Enemy had retreated, I instantly pursued in the direction indicated. A hard gallop of 6 or 7 miles brought me up with the Rebel Force, which was at the time passing by the village of Chichamba. The pace at which I had advanced caused but few men to be up, but considering that it was my duty to delay as much as possible the further retreat of the Enemy, which would have taken them to ground favorable for their escape, I at once attacked them and succeeded in causing them to take to the village and enclosures round it. I regret to state that in this affair I had four killed and three wounded out of the eight who charged with me.

I then moved off into the plain and formed up my Detachment as it galloped up, and was here joined by the 3rd Cavalry under Captain Nightingale, who on our nearing the village of Russoud, had been sent with his Regiment to the left. The two Risallahs then were posted so as to prevent the escape of the Enemy from the village, and we awaited the arrival of the remainder of the Force. On Brigadier Hill's approach I was ordered to take ground to the North East of the village, where I remained during the rest of the day.

At 5 o'clock P. M., I proceeded to post the Detachment, strength as per margin, with the view of meeting the Enemy, should they attempt to retreat from the village during the night in the direction of my Pickets which extended for

Between the hours of 9 and 10 P. M., the left Picket fired on the Enemy who advanced in great strength and in a compact body. I immediately galloped to the point of attack with all the men I could gather at the moment, and fought the Enemy over the short intervening space between the line of Pickets and the Hills, and up which we closely followed them. The top of the Hills afforded more favorable ground though of limited extent, and the attack was renewed with vigor. Captain Nightingale, with a party of the 3rd Cavalry, here joined me, and the Enemy suffered severely; but a few minutes after they threw themselves into a deep ravine impracticable for Cavalry and escaped from further pursuit. Their loss was great: their dead strewed the ground from the line of Pickets to the ravine into which they had descended. I am sorry to say my loss is rather severe. The enemy marched in a compact mass, and kept up an exceedingly heavy and constant fire on my men, who gallantly charged again and again, and always with effect, but we were not strong enough to break the dense column. Constant hand to hand combats occurred, in which the men showed the utmost gallantry and devotion.

In forwarding this Report I beg to bring to the notice of Brigadier Hill, as deserving of reward, the under-mentioned Officers and Men whose chivalrous bearing and dash where all were bold was most conspicuous. The nature of the ground prevented the Cavalry from forming in line. Our constant and unceasing attacks on the Column in the face of a heavy fire were therefore kept up by bold dashes of six or eight men at a time, who nobly threw themselves on the great odds opposed.

Rissaidars Mahomed Sha, Meer Delawar Ally, Jemadar Salut Khan, who was one of the party who charged with me in the morning, and whose brother was one of those there killed, another brother was desperately wounded in the same conflict, Salut Khan showed great pluck. Bargheer Mahomed Noor Khan although wounded in the head during the day, came to the front and alone dashed into the Enemy's Column: his horse was shot under him and he very badly wounded. Sheik Hyder who was with me in the morning's affair; Zulfikar Khan, a brave and gallant fellow, who was severely wounded after killing two of the Enemy; his brother was killed in the morning.

Troopers Meer Hoossain Ali } Both wounded in the

FROM CAPTAIN G. NIGHTINGALE,

Commandant 3rd Cavalry, Hyderabad Contingent,

TO THE BRIGADE MAJOR,

Hyderabad Contingent, Berar Field Force.

Camp Chichumba, 17th January 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of Brigadier Hill, Commanding Berar Field Force, the following detail of such operations yesterday as immediately concerned the Regiment under my Command. We marched from Chundur at half past 4 A. M. to Wakhud, a distance of 20 miles, and on arrival there information having come in from Captain Ivie Campbell, that a large body of Rebels were at Mossad and were then plundering the town, we received orders to push on. We accordingly proceeded at a gallop to Mossad 12 miles, where in obedience to orders previously received from the Brigadier, I proceeded to the Northward of the Town to cut off the retreat of the Enemy in that direction. We were taking up our ground, when an orderly came up to tell us that the Rebels had left and were marching towards Chichumba, 7 miles farther on. I immediately followed in the track of the 2nd Cavalry, which having been detailed to take the right of Mossad had a considerable start of us. After a gallop of 6 or 7 miles over a very strong road we came in sight of Chichumba and perceived that the Ghurree and a Nullah leading from it were occupied; on our approach we found ourselves under a rather heavy fire from the Rebels who had lined the Nullah leading from the village and which Nullah afforded the Enemy excellent cover, being overshadowed by masses of trees and thick bushes. Captain Clogstoun informed me that he had lost several men in charging past the Ghurree and that he had himself been struck, so we decided (the ground being perfectly impracticable for Cavalry) to withdraw our Regiments out of fire and surround the village, which we accordingly did and enclosed the Rebels in a net work of videttes. I threw out parties to support my videttes and after reconnoitring the ground I crossed the Nullah with some difficulty, at a distance from the village and took up a position with my Regiment on the rising ground to the Westward, which commanded the roads to Bamnee and Lonar. We there awaited the arrival of the Infantry and Guns, my main body being hidden from the Enemy by a slight rise in the ground. When the Artillery opened fire on the East face, I remarked that many of the Rebels came out of the Ghurree and concealed themselves in the Castor Oil fields facing me. I sent for a gun to drive them out of this, but none could be spared just then, so I rode to within about 400 yards with Lieutenant Johnson and 20 men and began firing at the Rebels with the two Zumboorucks I had with me. On my doing this the Enemy returned my fire from the Castor Oil field and showed in considerable numbers, but one of them having been knocked over by a ball from our Zumbooruck they returned into the houses and Ghurree. Shortly after this some people were seen escaping to the Westward, and I sent a party to bring them in after the assault of the 3rd Infantry had been repulsed. I merely held my ground with my videttes throwing out additional parties as supports. Towards the evening Brigadier Hill came across the Nullah and reconnoitred the ground towards the South, where Captain Clogstoun had his Pickets. There being a Nullah here leading from the fort to the hills towards Burr, it appeared that the Rebels would attempt to cut their way out either in that direction or towards Bamnee, the ground being hilly, rocky and much cut up by deep ravines on those sides. Brigadier Hill instructed me to withdraw my Regiment towards dusk, and throw back my videttes, (so as to deceive the Rebels with the idea that we had left these positions comparatively unguarded,) after which when the moon rose I was to take up a position with my Regiment, so as to cut off the retreat of the Enemy, if they attempted a sortie, which I had received information from one of my prisoners it was their intention to try during the night. In obedience to these orders I took my Regiment off to the Northward, and watered the horses (food we had none for either them or the men owing to our 85 miles' march). About 8 P. M. I personally relieved all the videttes whom I found very much on the alert, and I allowed them as well as their supports to the number of 70 men to proceed to Camp, as they had been on that duty all day. They were to rest and also afford protection to the Camp. About 9 P. M., we seized some Rebels escaping from the Ghurree, and they informed us that the Enemy was preparing to move out. I sent information instantly to Captain Clogstoun and Brigadier Hill, but before either of the messengers had gone far we heard shots in the direction of Captain Clogstoun's Pickets, so I caused the men to fall in at once and proceeded as well as we could at a gallop towards the scene of action. We met with many obstacles from the nature of the ground, it being impossible in the dim moonlight to see the Nullahs and water-courses intersecting the plain at the foot of the hills. I reached the foot of the hills just as the Rebels were ascending them. These hills are such as it would be unpleasant to ride over in day-light, covered with rocks and loose stones with high grass and thick bushes, which gave the Rebels an immense advantage over the Cavalry, as a charge in a compact body was impossible to horsemen. I saw by the flashes of the guns that the Enemy was making to the South Westward; so ascended the Hills to the left and pushing across the flat space at the top, found myself between the great ravine to my left and the whole mass of the Enemy. To give an idea of the nature of the ground, I may mention that although I started with 60 men, only about 20 of these with the Adjutant could keep up with me, when I scrambled up the side of the hill. At this time Captain Clogstoun with his men was attacking the Rebels fiercely in the rear and driving them forwards up the side of the hill on to the plateau, notwithstanding the great advantage they had in the nature of the ground and their very superior numbers. Seeing the large mass of the Enemy, numbering as has since been ascertained more than 400 on my right, I ordered a charge across their front and galloped on. When I had gone about 200 yards I found myself alone in front of the Enemy, who was now between me and my men, the only person with me being one man a Waghirab named Wassil Khan. The Enemy on seeing us commenced a tremendous fire and I could also see by the flashes of the guns that they were resisting Captain Clogstoun with the utmost determination, as they probably fancied that their retreat was cut off to the ravine. I rode backwards and forwards for several minutes in front of the mass, hoping that my Regiment would hear my shouts, till at last Ressalidar Major Ahmed Bux Khan with seven of his men who had been in search of me, came up and joined me. He then explained how it happened that I was unsupported at first. When I galloped across the Enemy's front, I instantly disappeared from the sight of Lieutenant Johnson and the rest of the men, only Wassil Khan who happened to be next me, seeing the direction I had taken. From this, some idea may be formed of the small degree of light there was. Lieutenant Johnson having thus lost sight of me, very judiciously turned to the right and fell upon the Enemy's rear with the Regiment, the Troopers joining in as they best could through the thick bushes and grass. Here Ressalidar Major Shah Mirza Beg, charging with his usual gallantry was, while in the act of killing one man, very severely wounded by a sword cut from a Rohilla. Trooper Shaik Fakrodeen was also cut down while spearing a Rebel, and numbers of the latter fell under the swords and spears of the Troopers, whom I had not allowed to load their Carbines. While this was going on Ahmed Bux Khan who had turned to the left in search of me, heard my shouts and joined me as above stated. I formed up his seven men and as the Enemy passed in a dark mass with shouts of defiance, keeping up a heavy fire and marching swiftly but doggedly along, I could distinguish the forms of the men of the 2nd and 3rd Cavalry charging in upon their rear. I asked my men if they would charge them, and on their reply in the affirmative we rode through their rear from right to left and each of my followers slew his man. We then turned and charged in the opposite direction, and this time the melee was at its hottest and here fell the Enemy in every direction, the killed being nearly all Afghans and Araks. They resisted us sword and dagger in hand, while some continued firing with great steadiness and as the mass surged sulkily along, none asked for quarter and not one got it. A few yards further in and the survivors were safe, as they threw themselves down the sides of a precipitous ravine clothed with dense jungle, and here Captain Clogston and I recalled our men, fatigued with nearly 22 hours in the saddle, and returned towards the Gurhee of Chichumba. We sent our men to the encampment and taking with us 30 men of the 3rd Cavalry, proceeded to the Ghurree for the purpose of searching it and removing the dead bodies of the Troopers and men killed in the morning's fight. This being accomplished we returned to Camp. It is now my pleasing duty to bring to the notice of the Brigadier the splendid behaviour of my Officers and men, when the fight was raging most. I was proud to see the desperate personal encounters that took place; and the spear and sword wounds on the bodies of the slain sufficiently proved the fury with which our gallant Troopers fought, and that they had met no despicable antagonists. Our general loss though rather heavy is comparatively small, which I partially attribute to the darkness which prevented the Enemy from aiming accurately, even though at such close quarters. The execution done in our charges must also have shaken their steadiness, still our loss is nothing to what might have been expected in such ground and under such disadvantages, as my total strength when I started was but 90 men, and the Enemy (we have ascertained from the prisoners) numbered 100 Afghans, 100 Araks and from 200 to 300 Dehkanies. Lieutenant Johnson with the body of the Regiment contributed much to our success, and I cannot speak in too high terms of the few brave men with me, who charged against such disproportionate odds. Waghirah Waseel Khan, son of Ressaldar Major Sirdar Bahadoor Ahmed Bux Khan, was alone with me for nearly 10 minutes not 100 yards from the whole body of the Rebels exposed to a most rapid fire, and he showed then and afterwards the utmost courage and coolness. He killed two men with his own hand, and I venture to recommend him for promotion to the rank of Jemadar, both on account of his gallantry in action and in consideration of his father's services and position in the Regiment. Ahmed Bux Khan Sirdar Bahadoor behaved with his usual gallantry and killed two men. Jemadar Villayet Ali Beg (who is already recommended for the "Order of Merit" and promotion to Ressaldar for gallantry in the Central India Field Force) also sustained his reputation, and I beg to bring to the Brigadier's notice for some reward for the gallantry of the men who actually charged with me and who behaved so well.

There names are as follows:—

Duffadar Syed Goolam Ghousa, Sowars Meer Hyder Ally, Gholam Muhomed Khan, Pyzoolla Khan, Silladar Ghoolam Dustagheer, Myboob Khan, Alla Duwd Khan and Mahomed Khan, all of the 6th Troop (the four latter have already been recommended for the "Order of Merit" for services in Central India). The Officers Commanding Troops have also brought forward for gallantry several men. Their names are Silladar Nuttay Khan (already recommended for "Order of Merit" in Central India), and Wuzoor Ali, of 1st Troop, Sowar Ali Sher Khan, of 2nd Troop.

Duffadar Salabut Khan, Sowars Meer Ghoolam Ali, and Pukroodeen (the latter dangerously wounded), also Duffadar Hoosain Khan, Silladars Mouzilar Khan and Namuck Sing of the 4th Troop. My loss is one Ressaldar Major and two Troopers, very severely wounded. One horse died and two horses wounded.

in position, two on the East, and two on the North side of the village, and kept up a fire during the day on the Ghurree, and those parts of the village where appeared that parties of the Enemy were posted. This position was about 150 yards from the village when the Infantry advanced to attack the place I advanced the guns to within 150 yards of the houses and kept up as rapid a fire as I could to cover their advance, and when I saw the Infantry fall back, I resumed the fire to cover the retirement. I afterwards withdrew my guns to their original position and the day's operations shortly after ceased.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 12th March 1859, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 16th of June next:—

A Bill to amend Act XXV of 1858 (for appointing Municipal Commissioners and for raising a Fund for Municipal purposes in the Town of Bombay.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act XXV of 1858; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay to remove from office any Municipal Commissioner elected or who may hereafter be elected by the Justices of the Peace in Sessions assembled, if the said Justices in Sessions assembled shall recommend such removal. In the event of a vacancy occurring by such removal, the Justices shall, as soon as convenient, elect a person to supply the vacancy until the next triennial election.

II. In addition to the Town Duties leviable under the said Act, the following Duties shall be levied in respect of the articles hereinafter mentioned when the same are imported from any place into the Town of Bombay and are intended for use therein, (that is to say)
Bricks, 2 annas for every thousand.
Tiles, 5 per cent on the market value.
The said Duties shall be deemed Town Duties within the provisions of the said Act relating to Town Duties and shall be levied and collected accordingly by and under the management of the Commissioner of Customs of Bombay and his Subordinate Officers, and shall be paid into the General Treasury to the credit of the Municipal Commissioners.

III. The Municipal Commissioners at their discretion may compound for any period not exceeding years for a certain sum to be paid to them in respect of any of the articles specified in the last preceding Section or in the Schedule annexed to the said Act XXV of 1858, in lieu of the Town Duties chargeable thereon.

IV. When any article in respect of which the Town Duty is leviable or has been or may hereafter be levied, is re-exported to any place beyond the limits of the Town, or when any such article being the property of Government is so re-exported or is issued from any Government Depot at Bombay for the use of the Indian Navy or for any other Government purpose, the whole of the Town Duty leviable or which may since the passing of the said Act have been levied or which may hereafter be levied on such article, shall be remitted.

V. If it appear to the Commissioner of Customs of Bombay that the amount of Town Duty leviable in respect of any articles cannot be readily ascertained at the time of importation by reason that the whole of the articles may not be intended for consumption or use within the Town or for any other reason, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner to levy and collect such amount at any subsequent period.

VI. This Act shall be read with and taken as part of the said Act XXV of 1858.

The following extract (paragraph 68) from a Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, No. 2 of 1859, dated 6th January, is published for general information:—

Reply to Financial Government letter No. 112, dated 23rd August 1858, reporting the Proceedings for the 1st Quarter of 1858.

Paras. 279-280.—In the absence of any special order from the Court on the subject, have decided that service as an Ameen appointed under Act XII. of 1854 is not to count as service for Pension.

Para. 68.—As it appears that Civil Court Ameens appointed under the Act XII. of 1856, are remunerated by fixed monthly salaries and that all fees connected with their employment are credited to Government, I see no reason for withholding from them the same benefit as regards Pensions as is recorded to other Members of the Uncovenanted Civil Service.

No. 19.

The following Extract, paragraphs 91 to 94, of Despatch, No. 2 of 1859, dated 6th January, from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, is published for general information:—

Reply to Financial Government letter No. 112, dated 23rd August 1858, reporting the Proceedings for the 1st Quarter of 1858.

Paras. 365-366.—Have refused to allow Mr. J. Bax, Joint Magistrate and Deputy Collector of Ghazepore, Deputation allowance for the first month of the second occasion on which he officiated as Magistrate and Collector of that District.

Para. 91.—On the vacation by Mr. Ross of his appointment as Magistrate and Collector of Ghazepore,

Mr. Bax was appointed to officiate for him, but before he had been employed for two months in that capacity, he was relieved by Mr. Brereton a Civilian out of employ, who had to be provided for. Three weeks afterwards Mr. Brereton was appointed Magistrate and Collector at Goruckpore, and Mr. Bax was again directed to take charge of the District of Ghazepore.

92. Under Section XXVII of the Absentee Rules, which provides that "no Subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same Office or establishment at the same Station shall be entitled to any Deputation allowance until after the expiration of one month," Mr. Bax was not granted Deputation allowance for the first month that he officiated as Magistrate and Collector, but your Government have also refused to pass Deputation allowance to him for another month after his re-appointment to the above capacity.

93. The Civil Auditor remarks that the Rule above quoted "does not in his opinion deprive Mr. Bax of another month's Deputation allowance from the date he resumed charge of his officiating duties from Mr. Brereton," and that he does "not consider that the two periods into which his (Mr. Bax) officiating incumbency

"of the Office of Magistrate and Collector of Ghazepore was divided by the intermediate appointment thereto of another Officer for the short space of three weeks can be properly regarded as two different cases."

94. I concur in the opinion expressed by the Civil Auditor that the rule above alluded to is intended to apply only when a principal or superior Officer is away from his Station on leave or otherwise, and not on every occasion that the same subordinate may be appointed his locum tenens in the course of the same absence or deputation, and I authorize you to pass the Deputation allowance claimed by Mr. Bax for the second period of his officiating appointment.

By Order of His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council,

G. HUGH LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.

No. 342 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council directs the publication of the following letter from Major General J. Michel, C. B., Commanding the Malwa Field Force, submitting report of an action fought with the Rebel Force under the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topee, under the Command of Colonel Somerset.

3. His Excellency in Council considers these operations to reflect the highest credit upon Colonel Somerset and the Officers and men under his Command.

No. 66 of 1859.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL MICHEL, C. B.,
 Commanding M. D. A.,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL, BENGAL ARMY.

Chupra, January 12th, 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward report of an action fought with the Rebel force under the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topee by a small force, under the command of Colonel Somerset, who is in Command of a Field Brigade.

2. In addition to Colonel Somerset's report, I have deemed it right for His Excellency's information to forward a sketch route of the marches made by this small column in pursuit, whereby it will appear, that 170 miles were traversed in six days.

3. When the smallness of the force is taken into consideration, and the speed of the pursuit, in which the Soldiers had neither tents, baggage, or European supplies, except for the first day or two, I trust His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief will deem, that Colonel Somerset and his column have well done their duty, and have merited His Lordship's approval.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. MICHEL, Major General,
 Commanding M. D. A.

No. 1 of 1859.

FROM COLONEL C. H. SOMERSET,

Commanding Field Brigade,

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,

MALWA DIVISION.

Camp Chupra Burode, dated the 1st January 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report that yesterday soon after daylight the Rebel Force under Tantia Topee was overtaken near this place by the Force as per margin, under my Command.

2. I had marched from a village called Surthul (10) ten miles off at 11½ o'clock the previous night having sent on spies to watch the enemy; my spies not returning I waited (4) four miles off until near daylight, fearing to disturb the enemy "who might move or disperse" in the dark, and I did not meet my spies until near this place and the enemy had then moved off his ground.

3. I pursued him at a rapid trot for about seven miles when I overtook three large bodies of Cavalry estimated at about (3,000) three thousand drawn up to receive me just beyond a village called Tancha.

4. The Horse Artillery were immediately brought into action and their fire was so rapid and effective that though the Rebels endeavoured to get up a charge before the Infantry on Camels could be formed up and dismounted they could not effect it, but retired pursued by my Force, the Horse Artillery galloping to the front for some distance "with the Cavalry," when the Squadron of Lancers took up the pursuit.

5. I endeavoured with the Horse Artillery and Camel Corps to follow the track of the Enemy for about five miles further, but found they had so dispersed that it was not possible to do so: my Force being too small to be divided I gave up the pursuit after about (12) twelve miles and fell back to this place upon my supports 300 9th Native Infantry which had not then come up however, but arrived later in the afternoon.

6. The Force with me had marched 60 miles between 12 o'clock P. M. of the 30th December and 6 o'clock A. M. of the 1st January (30) thirty hours, during which time they had not rested more than two hours at one time, having made forced marches for five days without tents or European supplies.

7. I heard on my return to this place that five Elephants had been abandoned by the Enemy when pursued at a village in the neighbourhood, one of which has been brought in this morning to Camp but the rest are supposed to have been carried off since.

8. Not having a sufficient Force of Cavalry I am unable to scour the country as I should wish in search of the scattered Rebel Force, which I much regret, as hundreds of them might be found and cut up.

9. The loss of the Enemy owing to his rapid flight was not severe, tho' numbers of men and horses, "among the former of which was a Native Sirdar" were seen to fall from the Artillery fire and some were killed in a charge of the Squadron 17th Lancers.
